FOOD for THOUGHT
“OUR BELOVED BROTHER PAUL”

GETTING STARTED

1. What insights or observations from this week’s message did you find helpful, eye-opening, or troubling? Explain.

Spurgeon quote: "We are one in Christ; let us be friends with one another; but let us never be friends with one another's error. If I be wrong, rebuke me sternly; I can bear it, and bear it cheerfully and if ye be wrong, expect the like measure from me, and neither peace nor parley with your mistakes. Let us all be true to one another, and true to Christ; and as soon as we perceive an error, though it be but as the shadow of one, let us root it out and drive it from us, lest it plague the whole body, and put leprosy into the entire fabric of the church."

2. What do you think about Spurgeon’s statement?
3. Why do you think people shy away from confronting others about sin and/or take offense when someone confronts them of their sin?

GOING DEEPER

Read the following verses. What are the benefits of being rebuked or confronted about sin?

- Proverbs 15:21
- Proverbs 27:6
- Psalms 141:5
- 1 Timothy 5:20

What kind of warnings should we be aware of when confronting others?

- Proverbs 9:7, 8
- Proverbs 17:10

LIVING OUT

- What is one area of your life that the Holy Spirit has challenged you through this study to personally grow? Are there any steps you can take to develop in this area?
