HOW to WIN FRIENDS and INFLUENCE PEOPLE

(Just a Sample) by DALE CARNEGIE

Part One – Fundamental Techniques in Handling People

Chapter One ~“If you want to gather honey, don’t kick over the beehive.”

John Wanamaker – “I learned thirty years ago that it is foolish to scold. I have enough trouble overcoming my own limitations without fretting over the fact that God has not seen fit to distribute evenly the gift of intelligence.” Pg. 21

“Criticism is futile because it puts man on the defensive, and usually makes him strive to justify himself. Criticism is dangerous, because it wounds a man’s precious pride, hurts his sense of importance, and arouses his resentment.” Pg. 21

“Let’s realize that criticisms are like homing pigeons. They always return home.” Pg. 23

Lincoln: “Don’t criticize them. They are just what we would be under similar circumstances.” Pg. 25

Lincoln learned by bitter experience that sharp criticisms and rebukes almost invariably end in futility. Pg. 27

“When a man’s fight begins with himself, he is worth something.” ~Browning

“When dealing with people, let us remember we are not dealing with creatures of logic. We are dealing with creatures of emotion, creatures bristling with prejudices and motivated by pride and vanity.” Pg. 28

“Any fool can criticize, condemn, and complain—and most fools do. But it takes character and self-control to be understanding and forgiving.” Pg. 28

“A man shows his greatness by the way he treats little men.” ~Carlyle pg. 28

“God himself, sir, does not propose to judge man until the end of his days.”
~Dr. Johnson. pg. 29
